something econoline quarterly

SEPTEMBER 2005

One unsolicited issue is sent to all 61-67 Econoline owners recorded as attendees at a 2005 EconO meet. When requested four consecutive issues are sent to owners who have once sent me (email/postcard/phone), their postal address and all three lines of their VIN tag's stamped characters.

ANNUAL RENEWALS

After receiving four consecutive issues annual readers will be automatically renewed if they are recorded as attendees (even without their Econoline) at the next quarter's EconO meet. Otherwise, unless renewal is requested prior to the first of December, this will be the last issue for: Ron Boesl, Bardsley Donovan, Howard Furtack, Phil Gulgren, Ronnie Hunt, David McIlroy

Please don't send me unsolicited: money, stamps, parts, literature, Tee shirts, or SASE's.

CLASSIFIEDS

61-67 Econoline related classifieds are free to anyone and, if the space is available and cancellation is not requested, will be continued until the last issue number shown after the reader's state or province abbreviation.

PARTS

C&G Early Ford Parts has recently published a revised $5 Ford Truck Parts Catalog which identifies all of their Ford Truck Parts that are also applicable to 61-67 Econolines. Unlike the most recent Ford Truck Parts catalogs published by Dennis Carpenter, Concours Parts & Accessories, Mac's Antique Auto Parts, and (Oklahoma) Classic Auto Parts, C&G's new catalog isn't divided into separate sections devoted to parts for specific Marques (i.e., F100/350 series, Broncos, Econolines, etc.), but is rather arranged in Ford Part Number Group Code descriptive categories and numeric sequences, just like the Ford Truck Parts Catalogs.

Northwest Classic Falcons in Portland OR, and Collier Classics in Los Angeles CA, both have new free multi page listings of their parts applicable to 61-67 Econolines. This is particularly useful since neither of these obsolete Ford parts vendors identify their parts by Ford Part Numbers. Northwest also has an online printable version available on their nwfalcon.com site.

ECONO NEWSLETTER

After about five years without publishing an edition of the Econo Newsletter, editor Jay Long has mailed an optional cancellation and refund form to an unknown quantity of subscribers who are still among the living and who still own a 61-67 Econoline. Current subscriber's who don't exercise this cancellation and related $6.67 refund offer are promised that they will receive the remaining issues of their subscription within an unspecified future time frame.
